

Darien Dash and His Strategic Advisory Firm The Movement Management Advisors Partner with Luxury Asset Capital

NEW YORK July 5, 2019

The Movement Management Advisors, the strategic advisory firm led by Darien Dash, today announced that the firm had established a partnership with Luxury Asset Capital. Through the partnership, The Movement Management Advisors will incorporate Luxury Asset Capital's collateralized financing offerings into its range of financing strategies and solutions, with a particular focus on providing short-term capital liquidity to athletes, entertainers and entrepreneurs.

Luxury Asset Capital is a private, family-office-owned lender to high-net-worth individuals and entrepreneurs in need of capital for business or personal use. Its Sports & Entertainment Group works exclusively with athletes, entertainers, and their trusted advisors to provide short term capital from approximately $75,000 to $5 million in a few days using a professional athlete's or entertainer's luxury assets as collateral.

"Dewey Burke is an amazing leader and partner that represents the highest level of integrity in the lending industry," said Darien Dash, Partner, the Movement Advisors. "LAC is filling a truly important void in the marketplace for clients that need liquidity quickly and reliably to fund post career entrepreneurial opportunities that they wish to pursue. We are excited about the future of working with Dewey and the entire LAC team."

"Darien Dash is among the best known, widely connected, and most trusted advisors and deal makers in the sports and entertainment industries today due to his unparalleled reputation for spotting opportunities, solving problems and getting things done," said Dewey Burke, Founder and CEO of Luxury Asset Capital. "Dash has significant experience dealing with the opportunities and challenges that arise in the personal and professional lives of highly successful people, and I have no doubt that our solutions will bring additional value to his clients."
