

Darien Dash Retained as a Strategic Advisor by Kareem Biggs Burke

NEW YORK SEPTEMBER 2017 The Movement Management Advisors, the strategic advisory firm led by Darien Dash, today announced that the firm has been retained by music industry pioneer and legend Kareem “Biggs” Burke to identify and develop strategic relationships and opportunities in the music and media industries, and beyond.

Kareem “Biggs” Burke, is the co-founder of Roc-a-Fella records, which was sold to Universal Music in 2005, and a series of follow-on companies including Roc-A-Wear clothing, Roc Sports, Armadale Vodka and Roc Films.

“It has been several years since I stepped away from direct involvement in the music and entertainment industry and the many great successes I was a part of,” said Kareem Burke. “I’m feeling now that it’s time to reengage, in familiar as well as in new ways, and Darien Dash will be a key advisor to me as I evaluate the options for where I go next.”

“Biggs genius is evident in his body of work. I’m humbled to be a part of his strategic thought group as he charts his course into the future!” said Darien Dash. “He’s a dear friend and brother to me and I can’t tell you how much I’ve learned from him over the last few decades of our brotherhood.”
