

Darien Dash Advises Kareem Biggs Burke's Bolo Media on Partnership with Valence Media

NEW YORK FEBRUARY 21, 2019 The Movement Management Advisors, the strategic advisory firm led by Darien Dash, today announced that it was the strategic advisor to Kareem "Biggs" Burke and his Bolo Media on the exclusive production partnership recently announced with Valence Media. The partnership will focus on a range of TV and film projects which will be announced in the coming months.

Darien Dash and the Movement Management Advisors team had the lead role in structuring the terms of the partnership and is responsible for managing the day-to-day business affairs with Valence, Media Rights Capital, Dick Clark Productions and other content partners. The firm had previously been retained by Kareem Biggs Burke to identify and develop strategic relationships and partnerships to support his music and entertainment industry endeavors.

Kareem "Biggs" Burke, is the co-founder of Roc-a-Fella records, which was sold to Universal Music in 2005, and a series of follow-on companies including Roc-A-Wear clothing, Roc Sports, Armadale Vodka and Roc Films. Most recently he has established Bolo Media and Circle of Success Management as his new enterprises in the film and television and talent management industries, respectively.

"Darien Dash knows the media and entertainment world as well as anyone, and is one of my most trusted advisors," said Kareem Burke. "His involvement in structuring and managing our partnership with Valence has been invaluable to having it come together as well as it has, and putting it on a path to achieve great things."

"I am proud to be working with the Biggs and the entire BOLO / Valence Media family," said Dash. "These are truly exciting times in the Media Industry and to have the opportunity to work with my friend and brother toward his goals is truly a Blessing"
