

CONFLUENTIAL FILMS RETAINS FOUNDER AND CHAIRMAN DARIEN DASH OF THE MOVEMENT MANAGEMENT ADVISORS TO JOIN ITS BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Los Angeles, October 2022

Confluent Films, the renowned Black-owned production company specializing in creating exceptional film, television, and documentary content, is proud to announce a significant development in its corporate strategy. Today, the company is delighted to share that it has retained the strategic advisory services of The Movement Management Advisors, led by Founder and Chairman Darien Dash. Dash, a highly sought-after strategic advisor with a three-decade track record of excellence, will also join the Confluent Films Board of Directors.

Confluent Films has consistently set itself apart by producing content that is not only engaging but also authentic, deeply resonating with audiences, and inspiring positive change. Their hyper-collaborative approach, fostering an environment of trust and respect, has propelled them to the forefront of the entertainment industry. The addition of Darien Dash and The Movement Management Advisors to the Confluent Films team signals a new chapter in the company's commitment to success, innovation, and inclusivity.

Darien Dash and The Movement Management Advisors are renowned for their expertise in strategic planning, capital market preparation, and corporate restructuring services. This partnership will see them working closely with Founder Tommy Oliver and his team to develop a long-term corporate strategic plan, forge valuable capital market relationships with institutional investors, and implement operational and internal financial best practices and policies.

Confluent Films Founder, Tommy Oliver, expressed his enthusiasm for this strategic collaboration, stating, "We are excited to have Darien Dash and The Movement Management Advisors join our team. Their wealth of experience and vision align perfectly with our mission to create impactful content. This partnership will drive us forward, enabling us to reach new heights in our industry."

Darien Dash, renowned for helping clients "see around the corners" on their paths to success, is eager to bring his expertise to Confluent Films. "I am thrilled to work with Confluent Films, a company that shares our commitment to authenticity and innovation," Dash said. "Our collaboration will harness the power of storytelling and strategic planning to take Confluent Films to the next level, delivering even more compelling narratives and thought-provoking content."
